

Rome Student and Family Orientation
February 26, 2011

1:00 Welcome: Erin French, International Programs Coordinator, College of Design

Luis Rico-Gutierrez, Dean, College of Design

Value of studying in Rome to students in design disciplines

Pia Schneider, Rome Program Resident Director

Studying and living in Rome

Spring 2010 participants

Rome experience video

Erin French

Rome Program practicalities and costs

Shannon Grundmeier, Financial Aid Advisor, Office of Student Financial Aid

Financing study abroad

Keith Bystrom, Associate Legal Counsel, Office of University Counsel

Responsibilities and expectations of students, faculty, and the university

Ten-minute break

Fall participants and families please remain in or return to the auditorium

Summer participants and families please adjourn to room 416

2:30 In the auditorium for fall participants and families:

Fall faculty members present an overview of the fall program:

Pia Schneider (interior design) and Cheri Ure (graphic design)

Fall 2010 students share their experiences:

Anna Morrell (interior design) and Kimberly Zamora (graphic design)

2:30 In room 416 for summer participants and families:

Summer faculty members present an overview of the summer program:

Michael Martin (landscape architecture/community and regional planning) and Brenda Jones (integrated studio arts)

Summer students share their experiences:

Alexandra Loecke (landscape architecture, 2009) and Amy Simmonds (integrated studio arts, 2010)

3:15 Opportunity to informally ask questions at a dessert reception in the Lyle E. Lightfoot Forum

During the reception, please also join us for The Rome Show, an exhibition of the work of summer 2010 integrated studio arts and fall 2010 graphic design and interior design Rome Program participants in Gallery 181, which is adjacent to the Forum